

Pirates of the Dale list of events:

Saturday, September 19, 2009

8:30-9:00 a.m. Begin the in-hollow wake up call with Captain Larry Shell and Crew. Songs, jokes, and more...a mobile entertainment, traversing dock to dock. First Mate, Michael Maxwell will command the ship while the Pirates of the Dale entertain...Free beer, Jell-O, and candy coins for all!!!

Noonish: Begins food competition and social hours on main houseboat dock D in front of marina. Any chefs preparing food may compete. Anyone eating may vote (save votes for the later grub during show time). Prizes will be awarded later in the eve during music.

3 p.m.: SHELL2SEVEN opens for approx an hour. Michelle Corley and Darren Shell will entertain with Michelle's personal songs and cover tunes. Try to tune out Darren!!!

4 p.m.: Dale Stumbo, Nashville songwriter and performer will take second stage, approx 1.5 hours. Personal songs and a few cover tunes will be performed. GREAT entertainer!

5:30-6ish: Basement Noise out of Indianapolis will perform for the rest of the evening, ending approx 9 p.m.ish. Many rock, blues, and cover tunes will fill the parking lot!!!

Periodic performances will take place throughout, mostly improv. Another repeat performance of the early morning WG pirate tour will be given...if provoked! Argh!

(If all goes well...) Oysters and other odd condiments will be provided during music, courtesy of Steve and Jill Taylor (oysters)—Bryan and Beth Courtney (Jello shots). Popcorn courtesy of WGR.

The ship store will close PROMPTLY at 7 p.m. Please plan accordingly. Our employees would like to enjoy this day too!

Bring many friends and enjoy the day. Drink responsibly and have fun on this...our customer appreciation day. Cheers—and ARGHHH!

All Hail! We're the Pirates of the Dale!

P.S. We will still try to play given any rain threats. Severe rain might cancel some events. Ya'll come!

P.S.S. Seating is minimal at the musical events. Bring your own chairs and a well stocked cooler.

Smiles...D
